Midsummer Festival

Municipal Park Shelter, 500 Walnut Street, Boise (look for Scandinavian flags)

Activities will begin at 3:00 with decorating the midsummer pole and socializing. Please bring your greenery and flowers at this time and help us decorate.

The Potluck Smörgåsbord Picnic will begin at 4:00. Bring your favorite Scandinavian dish and a salad or dessert, and table service. Club furnishes coffee and lemonade. Family and Friends are Welcome to Join Us.

Festivities include singing and dancing with music by our ScandiBand. Play our Trivia game, mug in the life-size cut-outs, laugh at jokes, play games and more. Refresh friendships and make new ones. Wear Scandinavian-inspired clothing if you can.

Note Family Friendly Midsummer Night Bonfire, Saturday, June 21, 7:30pm @ Ralph Mellin's Farm (between Maple Grove and Five Mile on Franklin Road, Boise (10100 W Franklin).) Bring your own picnic basket, perhaps something to share. Bring your instruments and Scandinavian stories, both personal and general.

If you are receiving this Newsletter electronically, feel free to call Kirk and ask which year you are paid through. Your small dues pay for rents and incidentals needed to support the Scandinavian Society and to help it grow!!
